Fall Plowing Kills Grasshoppers

Professor E. H. Strickland, government entomologist, has issued a circular containing valuable advice to farmers in the area in which grasshoppers have given trouble the year. Some of this advice is pertinent to the fall plowing of the soil, as the most destructive grasshoppers lay their eggs during August and September, after which they die. The advice is to plow in stubble soil, desiccated land (Lesser Migratory and Two-striped Grasshoppers) and no eggs are laid in land that has been so treated.

Where it is practicable from a cultural point of view all stubble land that is to be sown next year should be plowed in the fall. This fall plowing will bury any eggs that have been laid so deeply that they will not hatch in the spring and it will prevent the fall migration by keeping the soil so plowed.

Early fall discing is best, as it kills the grasshoppers, but fall lessening movement, eating, flying and all sorts that are brought to the surface will be destroyed by the sun.

When fall discing is not practicable, stubble land should be plowed to a depth of not less than eight inches before discing, as the eggs are laid in the soil and should be so treated to prevent frequent poisoning in order to cæsate the constantly hatching grasshoppers soon as they appear, and before they have done much damage to the crop.

In the early spring, when the grasshoppers are associated with the Lesser Migratory and Two-striped grasshoppers, the problem of control is more difficult, as these species lay their eggs in the spring, and the eggs are laid in stubble soil, so that they have to be treated frequently to prevent frequent poisoning in order to cæsate the constantly hatching grasshoppers soon as they appear, and before they have done much damage to the crop.

In the early summer, when associated with the Lesser Migratory and Two-striped grasshoppers, the problem of control is more difficult, as these species lay their eggs in the spring, and the eggs are laid in stubble soil, so that they have to be treated frequently to prevent frequent poisoning in order to cæsate the constantly hatching grasshoppers soon as they appear, and before they have done much damage to the crop.

When possible, the fallow should be staked out early in the fall, so that the grasshoppers will not move. The fields should be plowed from the edges to the centre, or, so that as the grasshoppers have to move, they will be held together. These must be poisoned before the ploughing is completed.

Spring discing usually follows fall plowing, as it is more effective, but it should be done for the same reason that it is done for the fall plowing.

Deserted lands and fields that are to receive a sennit to all crop in the district, and the best method of handling them requires careful consideration.

When possible, the fallow should be staked out early in the fall, so that the grasshoppers will not move. The fields should be plowed from the edges to the centre, or, so that as the grasshoppers have to move, they will be held together. These must be poisoned before the ploughing is completed.

Bank Clerk Missing

Bank Clerk, says D. A. Houck, junior clerk in the office of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, came to Bassano from Gleichen on Sunday, Oct. 1, to take possession of a clerk's office. He was last seen in Gleichen on Saturday, Oct. 2, when he had a talk with Mr. H. R. Houck reported to the A. N. Ross, accountant, spent the evening in town, returned to Gleichen on Sunday morning next morning.

Mr. A. F. MacCallum, local manager, has been trying to locate the young man, but has not been successful.

The incident of the disappearance of this young man has caused no little wonderment as to where he has gone and what has become of him. He left an empty suit case at the bank, also a bunch of keys that had been given him, and had not slept since he had left. He had not been in and he left no clue to his destination, or gave any explanation for the sudden departure.

The parents of Mr. Houck, who live in Calgary, were notified by Mr. MacCallum, but he apparently got no reply to Calgary. The parents have a son about 18 years of age and had been with the bank for some time.

Quitting an interesting meeting of the Agricultural Council of Trade was held Monday night, when a number of important men of business was present, and was presided over by Vice-President Geo. H. Gorderham in the chair.

GLEICHEN, ALBERTA, WEDNESDAY, OCT. 11, 1922

From Winnipeg comes a despatch stating that the endeavours of the Alberta Federation of Labor to get the government school books printed in the west, have been endorsed at the meeting of the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council, and the matter will be taken up with the Manitoba government. The question was brought before the council in a letter from the Calgary Trades and Labor Council, enclosing a resolution for endorsement. It stated that the printers of the three prairie provinces had tried for some time to get school books for use in the west printed by western printers. Alberta Federation of Labor, it is stated, had repeatedly requested the government of that province to get together with employers and employees and enquire into the practicability of printing them in the west.

Now that wages are about the same in the east and west for printers there is no excuse on the grounds of cost of labor for books to be sent east or even from one province to another especially government printing, yet if it is done, and certainly should not be done. All printers help to pay the taxes of their own respective province or town and are entitled to a certain amount just as a matter of good business. "Trade at Home" and you will surely have a look at some of your money again.

"Optimism in business, rather than pessimism in contemplating the future, should now be regarded serious as an important factor necessary to the return of the commercial well to normal business. Mr. O'Hearn, the Commissioner of Trade and Commerce, in the annual report issued by that department, Mr. O'Hearn adds: "Especially should this be so in Canada—the youth among nations, to whom at this time sad memories and a war debt are about the only material results of the war. At no time have we experienced the privations of any country in Europe or America, and the changes in the world have been so great throughout the world that been fed by the pessimist. Today no people in the world can regard the future with a greater pride than we. Industrial activity is returning slowly but steadily. We are now on the up grade.

"Irish Immigrants Flock to Canada by Hundreds" is a heading that appeared in one of our daily newspapers the other day, under which it is stated that the continued troublous times in Ireland are currently having the effect of sending many emigrants to Canada, especially to more peaceful and settled surroundings, and this movement is benefitting Canada to some extent in that this country is securing a good type of emigrant from the Emerald Isle. Since the first of the year Canada has received 3,222 emigrants from Ireland, of whom 1,020 have been male agriculturists.

A Toronto despatch says: Once again the women have lost out in their efforts to gain admittance to the Methodist ministry. By a vote of 16 to 17, the discipline committee of the general conference of the church has commanding their admission to the pulpits of the Methodist church. There were three women on the committee, and they put up a vigorous fight to allow the women to become pastors. One of the arguments against the women becoming ministers, advanced before the committee, was that it would tend to "rob the cradle". "Rob the cradle". Well, now! Wonder if the reverend gentlemen are speaking from their own experience?

From several points in Alberta comes the news of the formation of curling clubs, and the creation of new curling rinks. No winter sport fits into the life of western Canada, so far as participation is concerned, better than curling. Like golf, it appeals to young and old of both sexes. It is a friendly game, good exercise and a sport that tends to promote good feeling and it makes no western winter more full of joy and pleasure to an ever increasing number of votaries, and thus has good influence on Western Canadian life.

Now a days when the people want anything they look in the newspapers to find where to get it. If they want the services of a painter, a carpenter, a plumber or any other mechanic or tradesman, they expect to find a card in the paper. They look for it. If they find one the advertiser gets a job. Judicious advertising pays.

Try and make a live enterprising place out of your town and when working for its institutions or speaking well of the town and country remember you are accomplishing all the more for yourself. Don't be foolish enough to idle away valuable time predicting failures and thereby decrease the value of your property.

There is no truth in the rumor that Bassano has applied for an injunction to stop the Blackfeet Indians bathing in the Bow river on the grounds of contaminating that town's drink. Evidently they had trouble enough with the Calgary sewerage.

And the Methodists have decided against lady ministers—just when we had about decided to jin 'em. We wonder if the men fear for their job? We have heard the ladies are excellent preachers—God bless them.

"Figures never lie," it has been claimed, but this is far from the truth. The defaulter who has "doctored" his books in such a way that he has escaped detection for years, knows that figures can be made to lie. The shrewd politician, who knows how to judge statistics, knows that they can be made to tell lies.

But there is another medium of expression which is also supposed to be a stickler for the truth, but which is a greater precursor than figures. This is a picture. A picture of any person or thing, supposedly, is an exact reproduction of the original, but this is frequently only a wild supposition. The photographer who did not make his picture tell a little fib now and then would soon go out of business from lack of patronage.

PICTURES NOT BETTER THAN WORDS
Pictures have come to occupy a very important place in the life of the world in recent years. It has been said that for newspaper purposes a picture which tells its story strikingly is worth more than columns of written words on the same subject. Newspapers and magazines have realized the truth of this fact and as a result pictures are used profusely in illustrating the news and fiction of the day.

No one has been quicker to realize the possibilities of the picture when properly—or it might be improperly—used, than the mail order man. He has realized that a picture will do more to sell his kind of merchandise than a column of words and figures. One reason for this is that it is harder to catch a picture in a lie than it is printed in words.

Makes Claim That Germany Is One Of The Richest Countries In The World

Autos From Canada

Dominion May Become Largest Automobile Exporting Country In the World

"It is predicted that within a decade Canada will be the second largest automobile exporting nation in the world," says The Industrial Digest, New York.

"Several of the world's largest producers of automobiles are now accepting export reports, not having handled their export business from the Dominion, while the largest individual automobile manufacturer in Canada is the Ford Motor Company.

Germany is far wealthier than

France, All North Germany is a level plain, the fruit and vegetable industry is well developed, and the country has a unique system of canal navigation, which connects the rivers which can be travelled by pleasure boat.

The principal wealth of nations is created nowadays in industry, manufacturing, mining, and agriculture, and in Canada, the automobile industry is the largest, and the most rapidly growing.

With a population of about 6,000,000, Canada can supply its own automobiles and there is no need for imports, but the Dominion

now has a surplus of 200,000 cars, and is exporting more than all France and considerably more than the United Kingdom, the writer notes.

For international commerce, Germany has the best position in the world, and the port of Danzig, Lubeck, and the port of Hamburg, are the chief

German ports.

DISTRICT AND LOCAL

Union Church Circle ladies are preparing to give a Thanksgiving supper in the G.W.V.A. Hall.

On Saturday, Oct. 14, an auction sale of horses will be held at the Gleichen Feed Barn, by O. W. Crane. All horses, mares and geldings, all others who have stock for sale, list them with him for his bid.

M. A. Durkee and Harry Little have leased the Gleichen Lodge 11 miles from Lethbridge and are now in possession. They have started out by reducing the price of feed from $1.50 to $1.00.

C. J. Gueland, M.P. for this constituency will speak at Miles on Oct. 20th, and at the Arrowood Consolidated School Oct. 21st. All are invited.

Canadian Pacific Railway officials announced on Monday that excursion fares will be named by that company from Lethbridge, Medicine Hat, and Alberta to Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster on certain dates, to be named later during December, January and February.

It is unlawful to drive an automobile at night without two head lights, and the local police desire to give a warning to one and all to be careful in this regard as they have instructions to enforce the law in this respect. Take a kindly warning:

The date of the confetti dance has been changed to Friday, October 27th. It is to be given by the young girls of Gleichen, Medicine Hat, and Lethbridge. The money will be handed over to the Boy Scout Boys to enable them to procure uniforms for their hockey team. This will give the dance a success and incidentally enjoy a good time.

Last Thursday evening, after the closing of Lodge business, a number of lodges of the Knights of Pythias, gathered together to do honor to one of their brother members, Fred W. Vining, who had recently returned to take new duties at Lethbridge. Fred, who has acted in the capacity of treasurer of the local Lodge for many years, has been a valuable and faithful member.

We will miss him at our meetings, as we are as a citizen of our town, and all will wish him all success in his new activities.

The Call's Job Department is sure a busy place these days.
